

Bodrum Loft, which has become a Bodrum classic praised by worldwide publications, has opened its doors for the 2023 summer seasons

As an investment of Akfen Group, Bodrum Loft quickly became indispensable in Bodrum with its eco-friendly modern architecture, unique ambiance, and branded restaurants. The holiday village welcomed the 2023 summer season beginning in May.

Bodrum Loft, which will offer guests an unforgettable vacation experience as a classic of Bodrum, has made its mark on the holiday lists of leading press organizations worldwide. It will also be a destination for culinary enthusiasts with brands like Loft Elia, Paper Moon Bodrum Loft, and Vakko L'Atelier Patisserie.

Located in Demirbükü Bay, between Göltürkbükü and Torba in Turkey's vacation paradise Bodrum, Bodrum Loft has opened for the 2023 summer season starting in May. Akfen Group's investment, Bodrum Loft, known for its eco-friendly modern architecture, unique ambiance, and brand-name restaurants, has quickly become a must-visit location in Bodrum.

Bodrum Loft, highly spoken of as an investment by Akfen Group, will offer guests an unforgettable vacation experience this year as well, becoming a classic of the holiday paradise Bodrum with its innovative service philosophy surrounded by endless blue and olive trees.

ENTERED THE HOLIDAY LISTS OF WORLD-FAMOUS PUBLICATIONS

Bodrum Loft, chosen by vacationers from many countries, has found its place in the lists of many prestigious magazines and newspapers worldwide. Publications such as The Times, Tatler, Vanity Fair, Conde Nast Traveller, Time, The Telegraph, and Forbes have praised Bodrum Loft for its eco-friendly architecture and quality.

Each year, from May to November, Bodrum Loft extends tourism in Bodrum to six months with short and long-term rental options. All 36 villas of three different types at Bodrum Loft were rented out well in advance for this season.

Entering the season fully booked, those who rent villas at Bodrum Loft through its unique reservation system can sublet their villas to other guests through Bodrum Loft during times they are not staying. This year, the system will include weekly and bi-weekly short-stay reservations to reach more people, differing from previous years.

LOFT ELIA RESTAURANT RETURNS TO BODRUM LOFT

Bodrum Loft, part of the Akfen Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT) portfolio, will make a name for itself with its restaurants this summer, in addition to its holiday amenities.

Bodrum Loft continues to bring together a wide range of culinary cultures with its restaurants, offering guests the opportunity to experience local flavors and world cuisines amidst its beautiful natural surroundings. Loft Elia Restaurant, which served during Bodrum Loft's first two years, has returned to its original location.

Loft Elia Restaurant will embark on a rich flavor journey with its renewed menu this spring, the most beloved season of the year. Dishes prepared using the freshest products of nature will leave an unforgettable mark on the palate with their exquisite flavors.

Paper Moon Bodrum Loft, which opened its summer branch at Bodrum Loft and is entering its third season, along with Vakko L'Atelier Patisserie, which adds flavor to guests' vacations, will continue to welcome their regulars at Bodrum Loft.
